

Write a short paper on –

"Inland Waterways in India, Growth in the Recent Times and its Future".

The paper should include – Abstract, Introduction, Methodology, Hypothesis, Research Question/s, Literature Review, Results, Conclusion, Sources.

The plagiarism should be as low as 5%. The sources of the information should be mentioned.

Word Limit -2500 words.

Questions to address –

1. Does the Inland Waterways have the potential to bring a huge change?
2. How much does the transportation cost impact the prices in India?
3. Current share of water transportation as compared to total transportation in India?
4. How much reduction in the transportation cost will the development of Inland waterways bring?
5. How much investment is needed to build an Inland Waterways infrastructure in India?
6. Will the development of Inland Waterways infrastructure impact the masses by and large?
7. Will the Inland waterways help the big business houses?
8. Limitations to the Inland Waterways development.
9. Environmental threat through this to the people and the aquaculture.
10. How can this sector contribute in the sustainable development?
11. What policy changes are needed to let this sector grow?

Include maps, tables, news article cut outs wherever necessary. The data should be taken of 5 years at least.

Sources of Information –

1. <https://shipmin.gov.in/publication/annual-reports>
2. <https://www.indiabudget.gov.in/economicsurvey/>

You can also use other sources and papers.

Send a word file.