BE WHAT YOU WANT TO BE

Purpose of Assessment 1A

1. To develop basic research skills
2. To gain the necessary knowledge in the selected area of focus.
3. To assess your understanding & level of engagement with learning resources at an early stage of the inquiry process.

A1 scope requirements

1. Choose an initial research topic using a supplied research topic generation tool.
2. Conduct a literature search to identify one scholarly paper relevant to your chosen topic.
3. Provide a detailed overview of the paper using your own words following the given example in the unit.
4. Provide an explanation of the search process you followed in locating and downloading this paper

A1 scope requirements (Cont'd)

5. Demonstrate adequate evidence of the credibility of the paper.
6. Identify two relevant sources/references relevant to the summarised paper (one source cited by the paper and a second source citing the paper).
7. Build a review summary table and a theme matrix table of the three identified papers
8. Provide your personal reflection of your learning experience in this phase.

Personal reflection

- Summarise your learning experience in the first 4 weeks.
- Record your experiences, feelings and reactions during the entire phase such as:
 - commentary on Turnitin similarity percentage
 - evaluation of the helpful and unhelpful approaches.
- Reflect on the consultation process with your lecturer/tutor, peers and Moodle sources.

Assessment Criteria

- The research topic is relevant to PM, logical and concise. (10%)
- The selected articles are properly identified, credible and relevant to the chosen topic. (10%)
- The review is comprehensive, well-structured and concise. (15%)
- The summary tables include thorough and key information to guide the writing. (15%)
- Personal reflection is relevant, critical and well-articulated in response to the assessment task. (20%)
- The report content is substantially based upon the unit resources and lecture notes. (20%)
- Clarity and soundness of language, report format, presentation and referencing. (10%)

Submission requirements

- Include a cover sheet with your name, ID and campus.
- 1500 words including references
- Word document format.
- Follow the structure and guidelines of the given template.

Tips

1. Don't procrastinate.
2. Submit the draft for Turnitin check.
3. You should aim 5% similarity.
4. Make sure you get your final draft reviewed by Studiosity and ALC.
5. Allow time for consultation before final submission.
6. Use given tools and guides in Moodle.
7. Remember: Moodle includes all you want to get HD in this unit.
