I did not like house keeping. They were rude and non-compliant with noise. One staff had music playing while she was cleaning and it was so loud we have to walk out and open the door to tell them we are trying to sleep. I was in disbelief that it was house keeping. Then the other issue I had was we found a roach running around on the carpet and I took a photo of the roach and killed it. The carpet of my room 156 looked dingy and worn down, I was very displeased with my stay to the point where the price was way too high. All in all not happy about the accommodation, and truly displeased. I guess it's my fault for not reading reviews while booking. Read more Read less	2019/07/17	Azusa

The location and cleanliness was the best thing about this Hotel. But you better make sure the breakfast is included in your stay. If not, it's a bit of a disappointment. The air-condition went out, and they said they would send a service man to reset it, but he never showed up to the room. We had to call the manager and I have sent an email to who the manager gave me the email address, and no reply whatsoever! That tells me they don't really care. At this point, I would not recommend this Hotel to any of my friends going to New York. The price was way too high for the service we received. Read more Read less	2019/07/16	null

This is my second stay at the New Yorker and I will definitely be back! I stay here when seeing a show at the Garden, and the location really can't be beat if that is why you are in town. The A,C,E subway line is literally around the corner and if that doesn't suit your fancy, Penn Station is just a block up where you can The staff are always friendly and willing to help. Lobby is perfectly airconditioned which is great on Summer days! Be aware if you want to check in early, they want 50 bucks to do so. Bed was comfy, and I didn't hear any noise from hallway/neighbors. My room was 9th floor I think, and there was still considerable noise from the street. Nothing that ear plugs couldn't fix. The elevators, despite being numerous, notoriously run slow. Rooms do not have fridge or microwaves. Those are really the only downsides. Honestly, if you are coming from out of town to see a show at the Garden and the room rates are reasonable? STAY HERE You'll love it. 5 whole steps above Hotel Penn!!

Flot lobby. Fantastisk placering og var min 2. gang på dette hotel MINUS: de forlanger 31$ pr. overnatning for brug af wifi, fitness - hvilket jeg finder fuldstændig vanvittigt. Vi brugte ikke fitness og er Vi kunne ikke væge det fra. Derudover koblede de os af mulighed for wifi om morgenen på dagen for afrejse 3 timer inden vi tjekkede ud!!! Simpelthen for ringe Desuden tager de 5$ pr. kuffert/taske/pose som man ønsker opbevaret efter udtjekning og inden man skal rejse hjem. En stor pengemaskine jeg finder helt urimelig.

Pool area was OK for my four-year-old they had a decent kid area. Overall I found the hotel unpleasant and surprisingly disappointing, especially for Wyndham. Our room was more than outdated, but dirty. Anyone that travels and stays in hotels a lot... it had that depressing unclean feeling. I Service was lacking- it took 40 minutes, and 3 phone calls for valet to deliver our bags to the room upon check in (I should have seen I ordered two kids meals from room service and they were meh. I'm not high maintenance and have realistic expectations. I wouldn't stay here again. Read more Read less	2019/03/15	Jacksonville, Florida

The hotel is in a great location, literally across one bridge from Disney Springs and the foyer and main section of the hotel are beautiful. Everyone I encountered working was friendly and happy to help, and the bus services to the parks were great and easily on par with other resorts. Overall the hotel was good. There is no parking in the area and so they charge you $25 a night for parking. That is okay but they kidnap your money. Although the rooms were comfortable and reasonably clean, I noticed that they were not clean consistently. One day it was very noisy. My trip was not for pleasure so the location was fine but, if you are coming to see NYC, I can see that the location might be a bit pricey. Property is quite old. The lobby is very deceiving, The lobby has been updated. The rooms could use an update. Pros: • Location, location, location. This property is pretty close to anything you need. The train, food, malls, & time square is not too far o • The diner stays open 24hrs. I got in way later than I had expected that due to some travel delays it was great to be able to get son • The staff are all super nice and greet you with a smile. • Lots of options to eat and drink even within the building. So on those cold night no need to leave the building. (Steakhouse, Bar, D Cons: • Rooms are small but that is not unusual for the properties in the city. • The TVs are older models that do not get many channels. • The beds yikes needs to be updated. The mattress we had the edges poked us so bad we jumped to avoid it each night. • You pay $30 a day resort services fee. It would be nice for the offered amenities were nice. They were average at best some subp • Price for what you get seems to be mismatched. Paid too much, for what you get. I would likely stay elsewhere next time. The staff was very helpful, the breakfast buffet is nice. The pools were filthy with tons of chlorine that it hurt my eyes instantly as soon as I stepped in. The staff is friendly. But rooms need updating and soundproofing. No privacy and very noisy. Is in a good location. Access to a lot of restaurants. Great service and attentive staff. Hotel is within walking distance of clubs, bars and plenty of restaurants. The only negative I can think of is this is a big place with plenty of parking!!! Price is reasonable and it's in the middle of almost everything. Very very close to Seaworld.	May 2019
We booked and confirmed a King size Bed and when we arrived we were put into a room with two double beds. And the room was a great size. Stayed two nights at this great resort! Check in was fast, and the clerk behind the desk was extremely friendly, and helpful! We did go back to the resort just back from our 17th year at the Wyndham Orlando and again EXCELLENT. The service provided by the staff made our 3 weeks stay here for a conference. Room by WAWA was fine, and you couldn't hear the traffic which was a pleasant surprise! Rooms were clean. Spent a few days here to attend Pan Am Weightlifting championship as it was attached to conference area. This may have been lovely.	May 2019
Air conditioning was blowing warm air all night when I had it on the lowest temperature possible. The bathroom tub had other guests' hair in it. I would not recommend!! The sheets were sticky, the rooms are located outside.. i didn't see any security. Looks more like a travelodge. I stay in the hotel for 4 nights for a convention. the location of this hotel is perfect close to everything ,restaurants attraction parks. The overall everything was great. Nice staff, clean pool, calm area. They had shuttle to and from the Universal Studios, which was like 8 minutes.	May 2019
Having been diagnosed with breast cancer, I decided on a short trip to NYC before all my surgery and treatments started. I have visited this hotel 2 years ago and was so impressed. We went over from the uk and after the long flight the guy at reception gave us a great welcome. We checked in to room 3608. Small but has everything you need including iron/board. Housekeeping was spot on. My only gripe was the hotel room was roomy and clean. Front desk staff friendly. Very large complex however it was surrounded by so much to do. We stayed at this hotel in 2017 and loved the pool area and knew we would be back after that visit. However, this visit wasn't quite the same.	May 2019
This hotel was very close to all the Universal properties! It was clean, the rooms were large and they even give you a free escape room. After my first day at the hotel, I met Maggie who was servicing my room and we got chatting about the area, good places to visit and the hotel is very 'interesting' with it's past history and previous guests, but the daily extras are a bit steep compared to others in the vicinity. I have stayed at The New Yorker several times and I am always happy I did. Nice hotel, great staff and I love the location. This time I'd stayed at the New Yorker way back in 1963 with my family, so I wanted to repeat the experience. Check was fun, we hit a bad storm. Let's start off with the following, for a month prior to our stay not only did I, but also our travel agent tried emailing both reservations. I stayed here due to work and only hotel chosen by work. Your meeting, conference facilities are beautiful!! The supplies of pen and paper were great. Hotel was clean. Room was decent size. Grounds were nice. Pool was great. Shuttle to and from show was at a convenient location. Hidden fees upon check in, no hot water, accessibility to room and parking was a joke, we requested a new room on three different occasions. Super clean, lovely pools. Even if you travel with yourself, it's still affordable. Great location if you are a Harry Potter fan-- so close to Times Square. Was totally satisfied with all that the hotel had to offer; proximity to venues, dining, etc. Just didn't appreciate the Information Invoice. My stay at the Wyndham resort was a fast business trip. The room was quiet so I was able to get a good night sleep. The check in was great. Great place for families, we stayed in the family suite which had bunk beds for the kids. Very spacious, there are two pools and playground. Pros first. The location is fantastic because it's close to a lot of great restaurants like Coopers Hawk, Yard House and even a Starbucks. AC units barely do much to cool the rooms down when it's really hot and humid out. Otherwise the location and amenities were nice. Quiet and clean, beautiful landscaping. Pools where clean and fun. Easy access to everything. Rooms were clean and comfortable. Stayed here for a couples getaway, beautiful, relaxing place. Walking distance from the Icon, great restaurant and atmosphere. Price was reasonable. The room was extremely dirty. the tub was chipped and dirty. the bed extremely sagged in the middle and should have been changed. The rooms need upgrade. Sink did not drain properly, ants on the sink counter. The drapes had holes all over as though chewed by insects. I love this hotel I have stayed here about 4 or 5 times. The location is great and staff has always been awesome. My daughter always loved staying here. Great location. Hotel is located close to good restaurants and things to do. Universal is just a 5 min drive. Starbucks within walking distance. Lilia was so amazing and wonderful and helpful!! I travel for work and we had some confusion with the room, but she was sweet and helpful. Hotel is affordable and in a great location....steps from Penn Station, 20 mins walking in each direction to Times Sq or Chelsea, plenty of parking. booked sfbest limousine for hotel transfer from JFK airport. flight delay meant we were late arriving but had advised sfbest limo of our arrival. Miguel was so helpful with us with the airport transfers etc ... The hotel is modern, stylish and very good location. We didn't have the best experience. An iconic building in a convenient area of Manhattan. This was our first visit to the Big Apple and couldn't have chosen a more convenient location. Certain areas on the resort were dark when walking around. They only offer 1 hr extra for extended checkout. After the 1st hour they charge extra. Stayed at this hotel for 4 nights and I cannot say enough about everything, they really take care of you while you are staying there, the staff is great. Smells like mold." And string chemicals. HVAC systems don't work. Hot showers.....maybe. Either scalding hot or no hot water at all. MY A/C was so loud, I couldn't sleep. The bed was so hard, I couldn't sleep. Upon entrance to my room, my door was stuck, I had to pry it open. My room had an infestation of ants. My family ordered 70$ worth of pizza. We then went swimming to return to ants everywhere! Also, the pool was dirty. I've stayed at this hotel twice. Once in June 2016, second time in December 2018. Two different seasons and of course, different prices. The staff were friendly, pleasant and helpful, however the interior when leaving the nicely presented reception soon shown an outdoor area. We stayed 9 nights in this hotel. I'll start with what's good about the hotel (but do read to the end for the cons): 1. The hotel lobby is beautiful. The WC had toilet paper in the pan and long dark hairs over the seat. The bathroom shelf sloped so everything slid off. The room was clean. The customer service was brilliant especially with the help of Mohammed. But never ever expect a big big room/bed or even bathroom. We spent five nights at the New Yorker in May. Generally it was pleasant, but I expected more. Focusing on the positives: Location is great. There was rubbish on the cloakroom and she was totally dusty. The blanket was dirty and stained. The lamps were dusty. In some cases, the room was not clean. We stayed at the New Yorker for a week in May 2019. We generally enjoyed our stay: we found our room very comfortable; it was a very good location in NYC. metro station is just around the corner. friendly staff that helps. walking distance to Broadway musical. close to everything. My partner, my son and I stayed for six nights in May. A beautiful older hotel in a very central park of New York, right next to 34th Street. My wife and I had a wonderful stay at the Wyndham Orlando Resort. The facilities were excellent for the conference I attended. She was great. This hotel stay was the worst hotel experience I have ever had. When I drove up to my room, I was very surprised to see that the grounds were not well maintained. The staff were courteous and professional. They took time to assist through the check in process and made sure a room was made available. The rooms are spread out on a beautifully landscaped property. The rooms are updated and beautiful. The food was excellent. It was a great experience. My visit was really nice and I enjoyed staying at the Wyndham Orlando Resort International Drive. My room was clean and housekeeping was great. This place is terrible. They need to hire all new housekeepers if they want to become a 4 star or better resort. I had so many issues with the housekeeping. Loved the layout of the hotel which is similar to an apartment complex rather than a hotel and the easy walking access to restaurants and shopping. All of the staff paid attention to details, from the house keeper who automatically left me an extra coffee pack after my first day, to the	Jun 2019
